Thanks, Pat,

We certainly understand the circumstances, and we will conclude that you will contact us to reschedule if government offices are not opened by Wednesday morning. I assume that we will hear from you at some point after reopening.

Michael

Michael and Matt,

Please be advised that if the government shutdown continues through Tuesday (Jan. 23), we would ask to reschedule our meeting on January 29.

There are several reasons, including that (1) during government shutdowns we are typically prevented from working, (2) we likely will not be able to hold certain internal meetings prior to our meeting with you, and (3) there will likely be uncertainty regarding the duration of the shutdown.

To be clear, as of now, we are not seeking to reschedule, and we hope this will not be an issue. But if it is, we apologize for any inconvenience.

Thanks,

Pat

Michael,

Happy New Year. We wanted to follow up regarding the meeting on Monday, January 29. Can your team meet that day for a teleconference with us at 1pm? It may be best to reserve two hours for the call (although we may not need that much time). Please let us know if this works for your team.

Thanks,
Pat

Pat,

The 29th is good for all of us. As we get closer, let me know if you want to plan a meeting in Boston, or whether you can only do this by conference call. I hope you will enjoy the holidays!

Michael and Matt,

Good morning. We wanted to give you an update. EPA continues to evaluate the information that you provided on November 20th. We plan to resume settlement discussions with you soon. Considering holiday schedules, however, we don't expect to be in a position to do so until the new year. We'd like to get a date on the calendar for a meeting of the parties to discuss settlement during the week of January 22 or January 29. A conference call may be easier to facilitate, but we are also open to a face-to-face meeting if you'd prefer. We'd appreciate your letting us know your availability.

Thanks, and please let us know if you have any questions/concerns.

- Pat
